Babylon
1 call 999 (needs urgent A&E assessment)
1 call 999 or Samaritans
1 call ambulance
1 no data in results section. Call 999.
2 go to (nearest) ED
2 might need treatment in hospital - if serious ED
2 no data, go to ED
3 GP next few hours
3 GP within next 6 hours
3 see doctor urgently
4 speak to GP today for advice
4 symptoms complex-talk to medical professional
4 pregnancy makes case more complex - speak to a doctor
4 speak to GP in next few hours
5 see GP within 1 week
5 see GP
5 see GP in next couple of days
5 GP for routine appointment
5 no data. routine GP appointment
6 self treatment at home
6 can be managed at home
tested-GPs
1 call ambulance
2 ED
3 primary care 4hrs
4 primary care same day
5 primary care 2-3 days
6 primary care 2-3 weeks
7 self-care
8 self-care pharmacy
Symptomate
2 immediate medical attention recommended
3 prompt medical attention recommended
3 prompt medical advice recommended
3 prompt medical attention required
5 may require medical attention
Ada
1 call ambulance
2 go to ED
2 seek emergency care
2 urgent medical care
3 see GP within next 4 hours
3 prompt medical care
3 seek medical advice within the next few hours
4 seek medical advice
5 doctor routine appointment
5 seek medical advice (2-3 days)
6 can ususally be managed at home;
6 manage at home; can seek advice pharmacy
Gold Standard Triage
1 call ambulance
2 go to ED
3 see primary care within next 4 hours
4 see primary care same day
5 see primary care non-urgent
6 home care
Buoy
1 emergency medical advice; Call 911.
2 ER; Requires immediate medical care
2 emergency medical services
3 in-person visit today (as soon as possible)
4 primary care doctor within 1-2 days
5 primary care doctor within 2 weeks
5 phone call or in person visit (sometime in next 3 days)
5 primary care doctor
6 self-treatment
6 wait and watch
Mediktor
1 if medical emergency, dial 911
2 high urgency
2 medical emergency
3 medium urgency - go to hospital as soon as possible, it is very likely you need medical care.
3 medium, consider going to hospital
4 medium urgency - check the description of the relevant diseases and, if you have any questions, check with a health professional.
5 medium
6 low
K Health
1 urgent ambulance and emergency
2 serious health condition/ emergency medicine physician
2 emergency medicine physician
2 immediate medical care
3 primary care physician - immediate
3 serious health condition
3 seek medical advice within the next view hours
5 primary care physician
5 primary care physician or physical therapist
5 primary care physician or psychiatrist
5 gynaecologist
5 primary care
5 pharmacist or primary care physician
6 pharmacist
Your.MD
1 emergency - call an ambulance or go to the hospital immediately.
2 emergency
2 urgent
4 urgent - you should see a doctor within 48 hours.
5 see doctor within 2 weeks
5 please see a doctor
5 see doctor if symptoms persist
5 no cause found. Advised to see a doctor
6 symptoms should get better
6 should be better without treatment.
6 should get better without tretament. see a doctor if symptoms continue
6 no treatment needed
6 wait and watch
WebMD
1 urgent flag - call 911
2 urgent flag - see doctor immediately or go to hospital emergency room
5 moderate
6 low