Medical students' reasons not to enter specialty training immediately after the Foundation Programme
Burnout
Ability to choose work location
Travel
Saving money or greater earning potential.
Portfolio building for applications
Starting a family
Undertaking further study
Experiencing another healthcare system
Reapplying for specialty programme.
0
20
40
60
80
100
Percentage of Medical Students
Not important or not at all important
Neither important nor unimportant
Very important or important